

Point-Line-Surface and Butterflies

13.9.2023 (Wed)
7:00pm - 8:00pm

Online Registration Form

Language English/ Cantonese	CPD Hours 1 hour	Admission Fee HKIA members: $150 Non HKIA members: $250	Quota 50 Persons physically 1000 Persons online (First-come-first-served)	Delivery Hybrid (Pre-registration required)
-----------------------------------	---------------------	---	--	---

Synopsis

A Butterfly took off in Japan, arrived at HK after 87 days, brought a message and an inspiration.

In HK, Fung Yuen Butterfly Reserve provides a haven for 220 species of butterflies (90% of HK's species). The recently launched Butterfly Garden Certification programme attracted a lot of interest in HK and abroad.

Can we build urban homes for humans as well as butterflies, develop a biodiversity city or region, and how you can help.

Dr. YAU Wing Kwong, JP
CEO / Butterfly Effect Motivator

- HKMA/HKT Global Innovation Award 2022/23
- Butterfly City Point Line-Surface Initiator
- Smart Countryside Initiator
- Hong Kong Solar Policy Motivator
- HK New Agriculture Policy Imitator
- HK New Nature Conservation Policy pilot project
- HK Sustainable Fisheries Development Fund Chairman
- HK Advisory Committee on Countryside Conservation
- HK Town Planning Board Member (2010-2017)
- HK Advisory Council on Environment (2006-2011)
- HK Taipo District Board Member (2008-2015)

Supporting organisations

